Information was received late today from the Office of Naval Intelligence (ONI) that ONI may submit material for Bureau consideration regarding an apparent leak of classified defense information to captioned individual who writes a syndicated news column with Robert S. Allen, formerly associated with Drew Pearson.

Captain Rufus Taylor, Acting Director of ONI, advised that he had been instructed on the afternoon of 2-8-63 by Navy Secretary Fred Korth to refer to the Bureau for its consideration the apparent leak of Navy information to Scott. Taylor said that on 2-6-63 during a press conference concerning the Cuban situation Defense Secretary McNamara was asked several questions by Scott relating to the introduction and removal from Cuba of offensive weapons. Taylor said that figures used by Scott in his questions are precisely the same as figures contained in two secret Navy documents. Navy Secretary Korth said he was most interested in learning, if possible, who made this information available to Scott. Captain Taylor said some of the classified information is based on communications intelligence.

Captain Taylor also stated that later on the afternoon of 2-8-63 he was informed Secretary Korth had called Pierre Salinger at the White House to tell him that the Navy was referring this matter to the FBI. Taylor further stated that subsequently he was informed that Salinger had called back to Defense and stated that the White House wanted no hint of any investigation to get back to Scott.

At 6:50 p.m., 2-8-63, Captain Taylor called to advise that no action should be taken in this matter until a specific request is received by the Bureau. Captain Taylor said he based this statement on receipt of information that Salinger had again called Defense saying that the President said not to do anything on this "thing" to alert Scott. Taylor said it is now planned that he and the Chief of Naval Information will confer on 2-9-63 with Navy Secretary Korth as to what course of action to follow. Taylor said that he will thereafter be in touch with us by Liaison.

My enclosed memorandum of 2-8-63 advised that Navy was considering submitting to the Bureau information regarding an apparent leak of classified defense information to captioned individual. It was also noted that the White House wanted no hint of any investigation to get back to Scott.

On 2-9-63 Captain Rufus Taylor, Acting Director of Office of Naval Intelligence (ONI), called Liaison stating that a conference had been held in the Navy Secretary's office that morning as a result of which Navy Secretary Korth had told Taylor not to request the Bureau to conduct an investigation at this time. On 2-12-63 Captain Taylor told Liaison that there had been no further developments in the matter as far as he knew. Taylor told Liaison that he did not anticipate that any request for investigation would be forthcoming to the Bureau nor that any investigation would be conducted by ONI.

By memorandum 2/8/63, Liaison [redacted] advised that the Navy (ONI) might refer to the Bureau a request for investigation to pinpoint the source of a leak of Navy information to Paul Scott and Robert Allen, who write a column in the "Northern Virginia Sun."

On 2/14/63 ONI advised us that the White House wanted no hint of any investigation to get back to Scott, and ONI was not asking the Bureau to conduct investigation.

Apparently there is continued distress concerning these articles in that the White House and intelligence agencies feel that classified information has been compromised, including possible communications intelligence. McGeorge Bundy of the White House requested [redacted]

During December, 1962; January, 1963; and February, 1963, articles written by the subjects containing highly classified information appeared in the daily newspaper, the "Northern Virginia Sun." The classified information pertained to Soviet offensive plans in Cuba and included communications intelligence data.

This matter was first brought to our attention on February 3, 1963, by the Office of Naval Intelligence at the direction of Secretary of the Navy Fred Korth. We were advised then that Mr. Pierre E. G. Salinger, Press Secretary to the President, had been informed by Secretary Korth that the matter was being referred to the FBI and that Mr. Salinger had indicated that the President had said that nothing should be done in any investigation in the case which would alert Scott to the fact that he was being investigated. On February 9, 1963, the Navy advised that Secretary Korth had indicated he did not want an FBI investigation in this case.
